Mike "Old boy"

It's been nice knowing ^{you}, and I hope we keep seeing each other. When we first met we were just punks, but know we changed you posted and I failed. I can always say I tried. King and I were like buddies but, I'm not coming back to ask her.

Mike I haven't much to say and do.

I wish you the best of Luck and, and, in the future take it easy. To one of my best buddy. in the Washington High School.

Yours truly XXX

The 1950 ANVIL presents . . .

"THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES"

THESE HAVE BEEN THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES

Just look around and count our blessings now.

When we were younger, we had fabulous dreams — world conquering schemes.

But now there is hope and you to see me through, and these have been the best years of our lives — away beyond our dreams of yesterday.

No matter what tomorrow brings — the soul inside me sings that these have been the best years of our lives.

DEDICATION . . .

These have been the best years of our lives. They have set the foundation; it is up to us to build from there. How high we build and how strong our building depends on us.

These years have brought us more than education — along with the tears and laughter of youth, they have given us memories of yesterday and dreams for tomorrow. But we need more than dreams. We need a firm belief in ourselves and in our ability to fulfill those dreams.

We dedicate this year's Anvil to that dream, to that future, knowing full well that "The future lies not in the hands of fate, but in ours."

1950 ANVIL WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
EAST CHICAGO, INDIANA

Mr. Cash and representatives of their respective classes: Josephine Chapman, junior; Mr. Cash, principal; Mike Connelly, senior; George Bulfa, freshman; Barbara Bartok, sophomore.

Mr. Frank E. Cash, the principal of Washington High School, has done much to earn the respect and admiration of both the students and faculty. Mr. Cash came to Washington High School as a coach. He continued in this position for thirteen years, after which he became director of physical education in the East Chicago Public Schools for six years. He was then promoted to assistant principal. During this time he showed his ability to handle the responsibilities of that position. In 1945 Mr. Cash was made principal of Washington High School. During the five years that he has held this office, he has done much to live up to the last three letters of the word, "principal". He is truly a pal to the students and faculty of Washington High School.

A few of the persons who have helped to make these the best years of our lives are the members of the administration.

Mr. T. V. Altenderfer and Mr. C. E. Kellam, assistants to Mr. Cash, deserve their share of the credit. They have done well in seeing that the rules and regulations of our school have been obeyed.

Miss Kate De Pew, dean of girls, and Mr. C. E. Kellam, dean of boys, are responsible for helping the students to keep on the right path. They have executed their duties faithfully, and their doors are open to any student needing guidance.

In Memoriam Clarence E. Fauber

Born 1893 Died 1949

Mr. Fauber, born in Tazewell County, Illinois, graduated from Monticello High School, in 1911 and began teaching that same year. In 1924, after thirteen years of teaching experience, he came to East Chicago. In 1936, Purdue University granted him a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Education and awarded him the Master of Science Degree in Education in 1948.

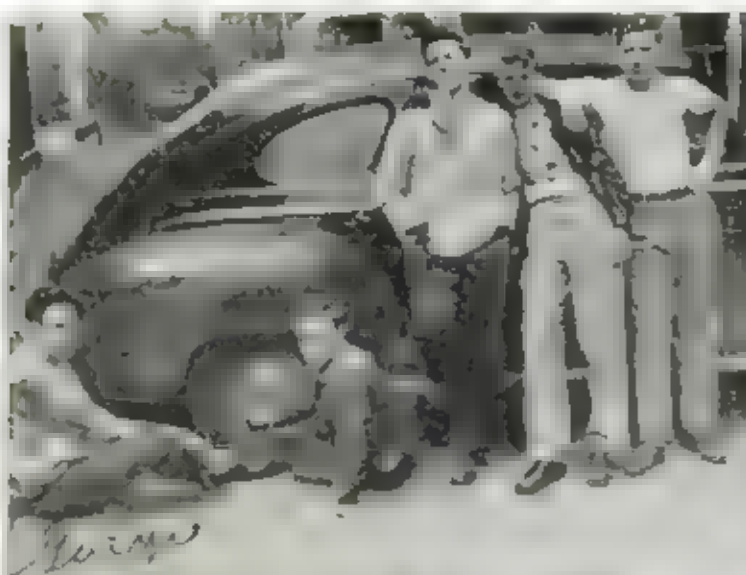

For twenty-five years, Mr. Fauber was instructor of woodworking and cabinet making in Washington High School and the official counselor of many youth. In 1946, he became counselor for the freshman. By 1948, he was recognized as chairman of the Industrial Education Department and his fellow teachers honored him by electing him for two years as president of the East Chicago Teachers Association.

Just this fall, Mr. Fauber became assistant principal in charge of Washington Elementary. In this position, he again demonstrated his ability to give his all in every assignment he undertook. In the few months that he was in the elementary school, he was loved and respected by both the students and teachers.

Mr. Fauber will always be remembered by everyone as a kind and enthusiastic teacher, and also as a good friend.

ACTIVITIES

This is the senior class of 1950 in freshmen. Can you remember how our hearts pounded every Thursday night as we went into the elementary school room to learn the 1, 2 step from Miss Kopko? The five foot four girls were lined up on one side of the room and the four foot five boys on the other. This was the preparation for our first real activity in high school — the Freshman Party.

This was the climax, the supreme moment when we walked in with our first high school date. Do you remember the embarrassment of the first turn about dance when it was up to the girl to pick her partner? How afraid you were to ask your secret friend because he would find out about your crush. So you asked his best friend, who probably became your steady.

And now we are seniors — the years have been short and beautiful. The dream is over and we are walking home hand in hand with tears in our eyes and trust in our hearts. It has been a wonderful four year party. We had our failures and profited by them. We had our triumphs and reveled in them. Now we have the future and no matter what tomorrow brings — the heart insists that these have been the best years of our lives.

YOUNG MEN OF OUR LIVES" . . . AT WORK

We will do our best to turn out an excellent yearbook, and we will co-operate with each other in order to achieve this goal. This is the contract the Senior Anvil Staff make with the school and the senior class.

Suppose we peek into room 213 A and catch the Art. Sept. 1968. A young woman running up and down the stairs to be Violet Violet to editor. Violet is in the room and the room is in the room. The work is in the room. The deadlines are in the room.

Following completion of her duties as Liaison Officer, she will continue to plan and supervise the work of the divers and maintenance staff.

Headquarters, 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Cavazos, Texas, will have been making the necessary arrangements for the transfer of the 1st Cavalry Division to our Army.

[illegible]

Working in the field, I have seen many of the same things that you have seen. If you are interested in the work, I would be glad to talk with you for this company, and I would be glad to see you.

Banging away on the typewriter. Most of the time she takes over when she lapses is Mary Ann McEnaney and when she's gone she goes down to Ruth Plankton ship. This is our product editor. The Mrs. Ann McEnaney is also assistant editor of the Weekly Argus.

Bent over his drawing board is the President of the Anvil Staff. He is Sam Hogan, the art editor.

Squeezed just inside the door are Minnie Morrison and Art Meyers, our sport editors. They are also in charge of concessions. Last but not least is Sam Korichen, our photographer, who is probably out snapping pictures right now.

Well, that's your staff. Except for a few gray hairs were none the worse for wear. But how well we've done our job . . . that's up to you!!! We did our best.

SENIOR ASSISTANTS

Hanusiak, Vano.

With the help of faculty advisers — Mr Kincaid, Mr Matovich, and Miss Murphy this year's Weekly Anvil deserves to make the headlines. For the first time in twenty years the style of the Weekly Anvil was changed. Instead of the traditional three column style four columns are now used to make a better and more interesting school paper.

In addition to this, another major change occurred. No longer do the print shop classes do the work for the paper. The staff is assigned to a regular print shop class and given print shop credit for it.

Let us introduce this year's staff. We are proud of their achievement and congratulate them on their success. The editor, blond and brilliant, is Mildred Galbo. Talented Virginia Galik and versatile Eugenia Baltes are assistant editors.

Clever Esther Jacoby writes the interesting articles with a new slant that has created much comment. Her mystery questions have stumped the best of us.

The diary of Hortense, based on her friendship with Myrtle, was exposed by columnists Gladys Drake and Sam Evans. In it was found all the latest gossip and through the year it has proved most informative.

Beating a path to and from the Post Office, we found and identified our exchange editors, Pat Karvels and Mary Ann Nallenweaver. Mary Ann took over the job of assistant editor when Eugenia graduated in January.

The roving reporters — Berette Golden, Dorothy Tenaosik, Helen Psaltis, Irene Vano, Teresa Szymanski, and Kathryn Poole — are continually coming up with something new in the way of news stories about activities in school.

On the sports page Amelia Hanusnik kept the sports minded girls well informed.

George Henderson should be commended on the excellent work done in writing the boys' sports column.

Last, but by no means least, we have the business managers, efficient Corelei Crowe and energetic Joyce Hetrick. It was their job to supervise the sales of the solicitors and distribute the Anvil.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The student government is composed of eighteen councilmen, judge, clerk, and the student manager. The records will show that our student manager has fulfilled his job to the minute details. We knew we would have a well-done job with Chuck Kelly as the student manager.

Presiding over the student government is a senior member of the organization who has been very active in school affairs. He goes by the title of "The President of the Student Government, Paul Bubala."

"Order in the court" is the familiar cry of the honorable Judge Longnecker, more commonly known as Bert. Letters, notes, and minutes are all efficiently attended to by Pearl Chaffee, the clerk.

Under the guidance of Mr. Palmer, this year's student government has gone far to make Washington High School a better place.

George

The All-school play presented this year was "The Door" a drama patterned after the first and third acts of "The Who Love the Stage". Mrs. M. Fredrickson directed the cast and aided in more success to her own first performance drama. The play was presented at two different times and an evening performance on February 10. To say the play was a success is an understatement for the cast was chosen so effectively that every part was played with a naturalness that carried the audience

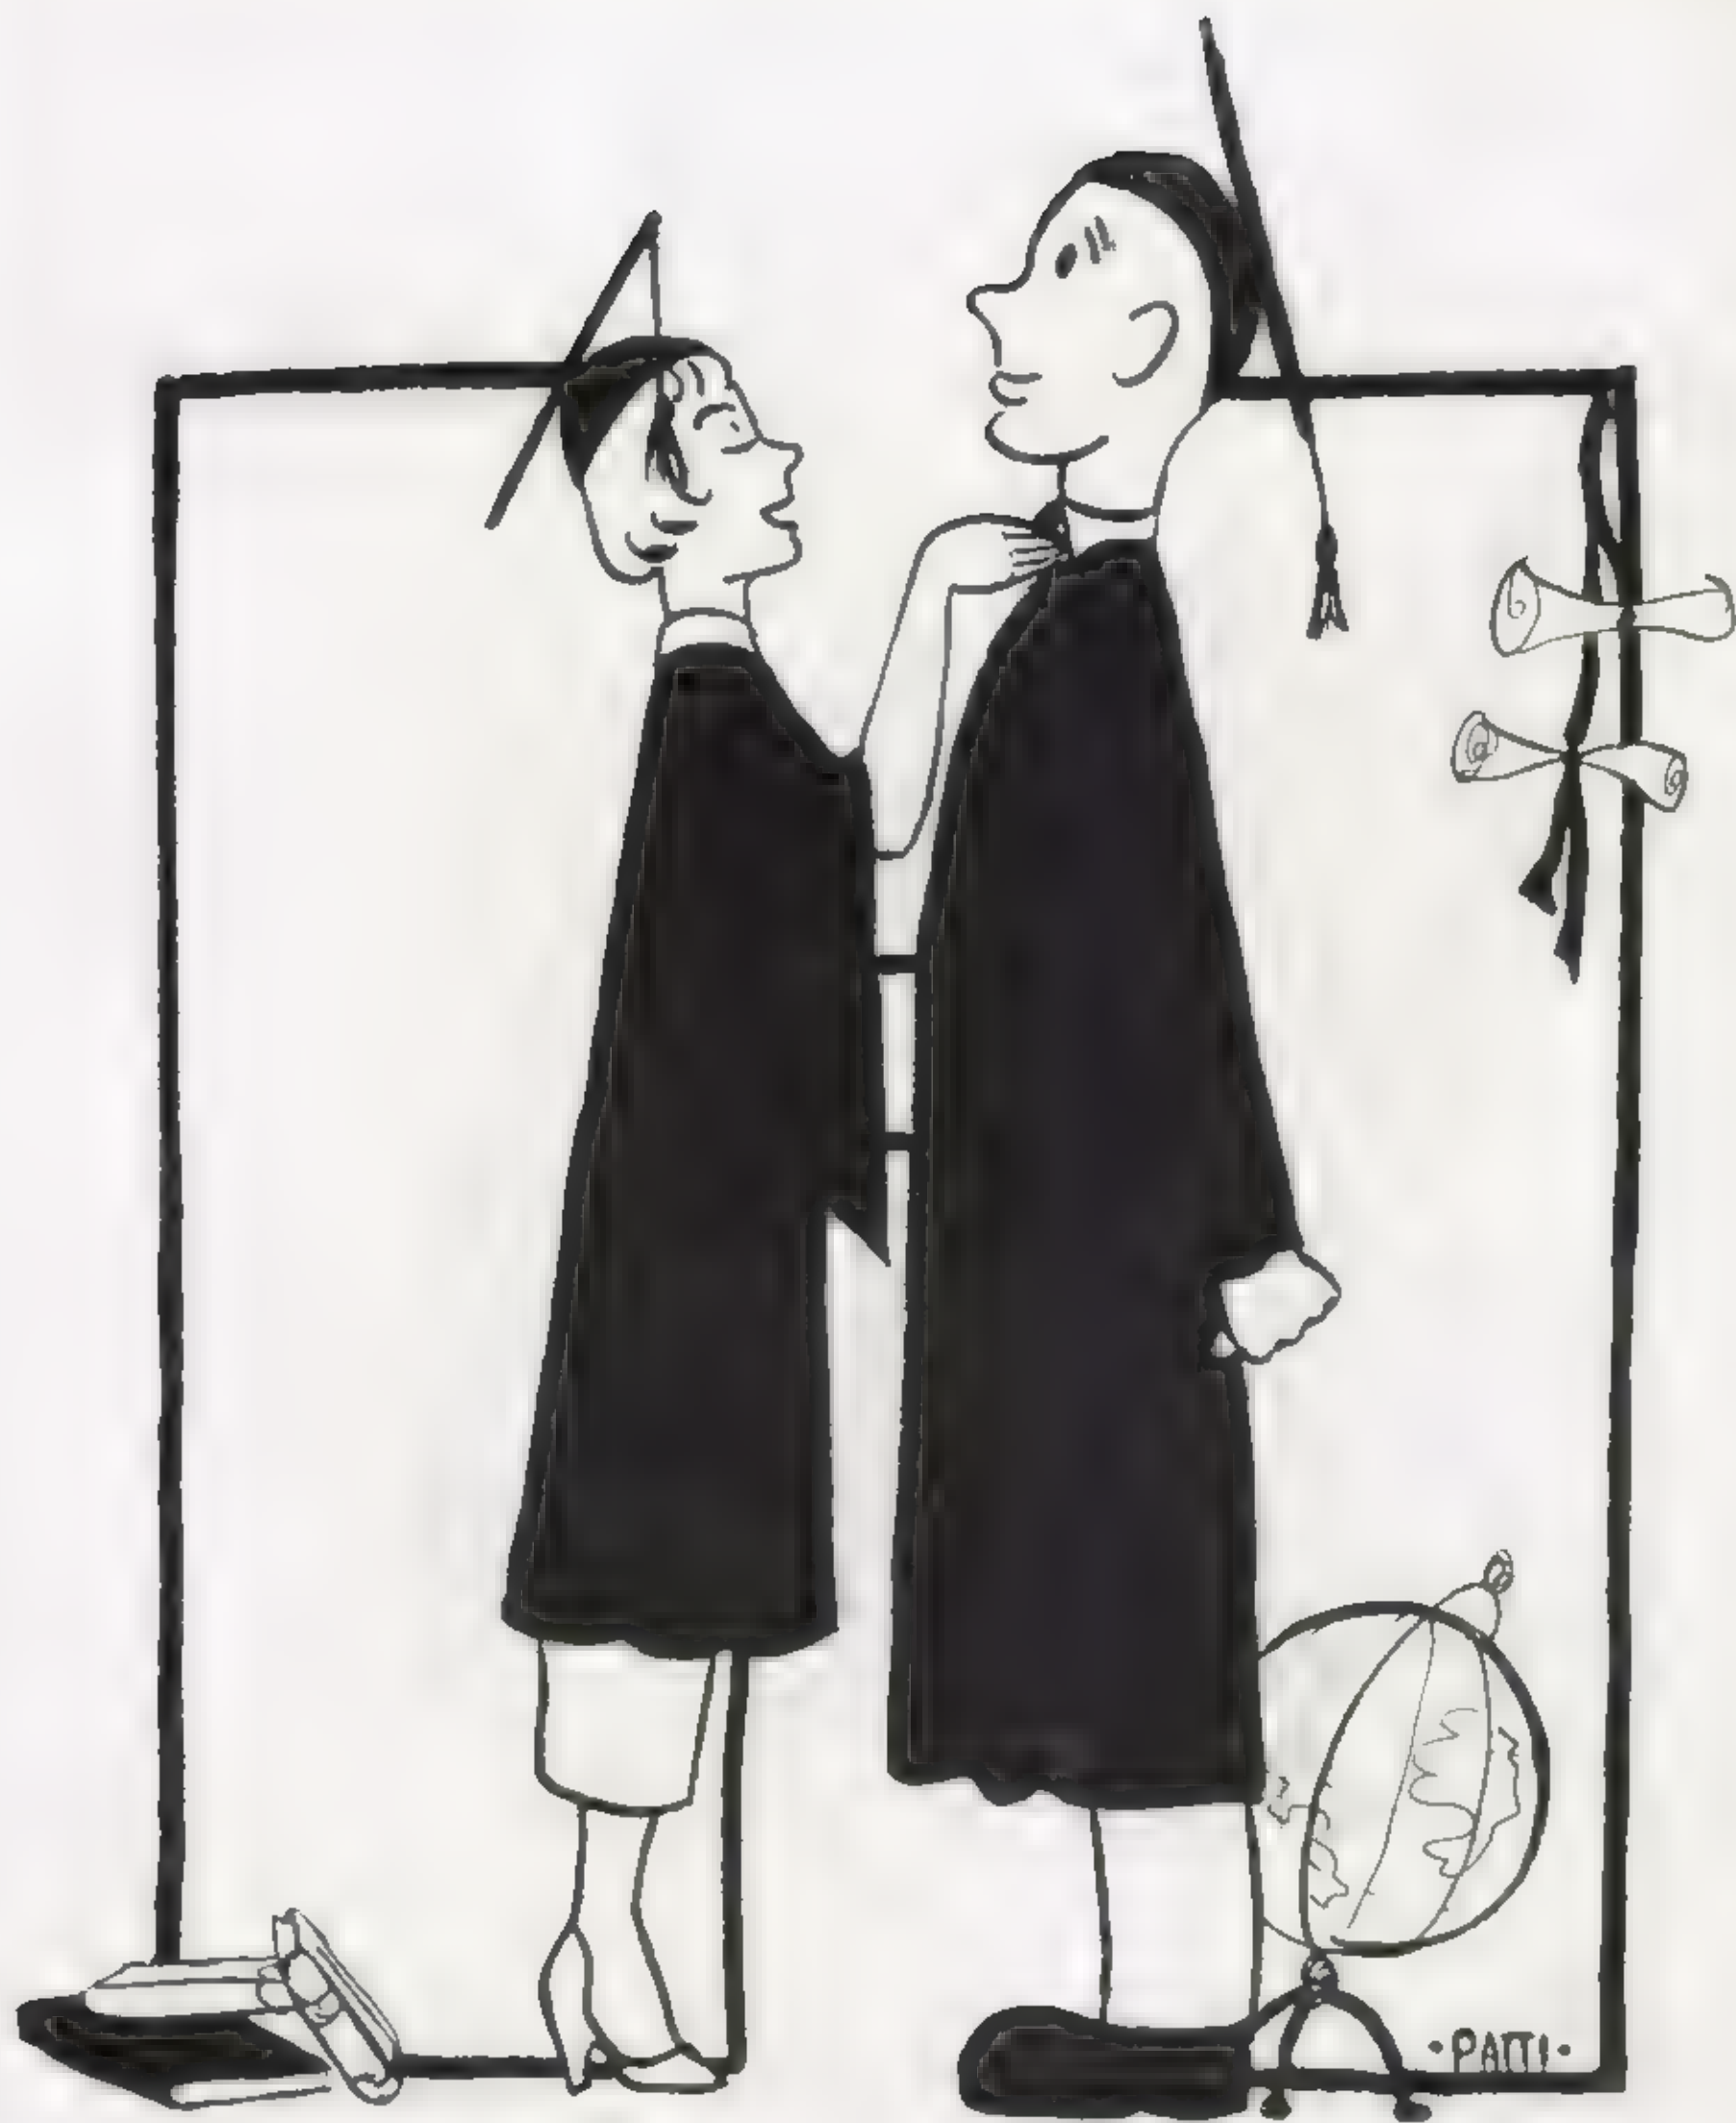

SCHOOL PLAYS...

THE WIZARD OF OZ

The Theater for Young People under the direction of Miss M. J. Johnston presented the play "The Wizard of Oz" at two assemblies. The first was given from students in the 9th, 10th, and 11th grades. The play was a delight to students from the first scene to the last. It was presented in such an amusing way with some very authentic costumes that everyone was entertained. Some very good talent was discovered in the play and Miss Johnston will have little trouble selecting the first of the next to come.

SENIORS OF 1950

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Arnold Nelson, vice-president; Joseph Matuga, president;
Edward Gaio, secretary.

From the many candidates running for the senior class offices, the seniors chose the three they thought the best; and throughout the school term, they realized that they had chosen wisely.

Joe Matuga was elected president. Joe was not only an excellent student but was also a live on the basketball and baseball teams. Joe presided at the senior class meetings and helped select seniors to serve on committees.

Arnold Nelson was chosen as vice-president of the class. Arnold also was a good student and a three-letter man. Arnold assisted Joe in selecting committees.

For the position of secretary, the class elected Ed Gaio. Ed was well known for his work in the classroom, and his place on the wrestling team. Ed kept a record of each meeting.

The senior class is proud of their choice of officers. All three boys have proven themselves worthy of the confidence placed in them.

COMMENCEMENT

We file in one by one, conscious of our friends murmuring their approval. We take our seats, conscious of the eyes that gleam on us with pride. Tonight we are graduating from the best experience. This is our last appearance as a class — the class of 1950.

Tonight we are a group glorified; tomorrow we will be separate units. Tonight we are a group approved of; we are bestowed with honor and glory. Tomorrow we are on our own. In every heart with the fear and hope, there is a prayer that tomorrow and in all the tomorrows to come we will merit the same approval, honor, and glory.

The pages signify that it is time for us to receive our diplomas. We rise and one by one walk across the stage with all the dignity we can muster in spite of the lumps in our throats. We clutch our diplomas . . . a feeling of exultation goes through us. As the triumphant strains of the recessional resound through the auditorium, we walk out with a new realization. Now, we are on our way to make the years ahead the best years of our lives.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

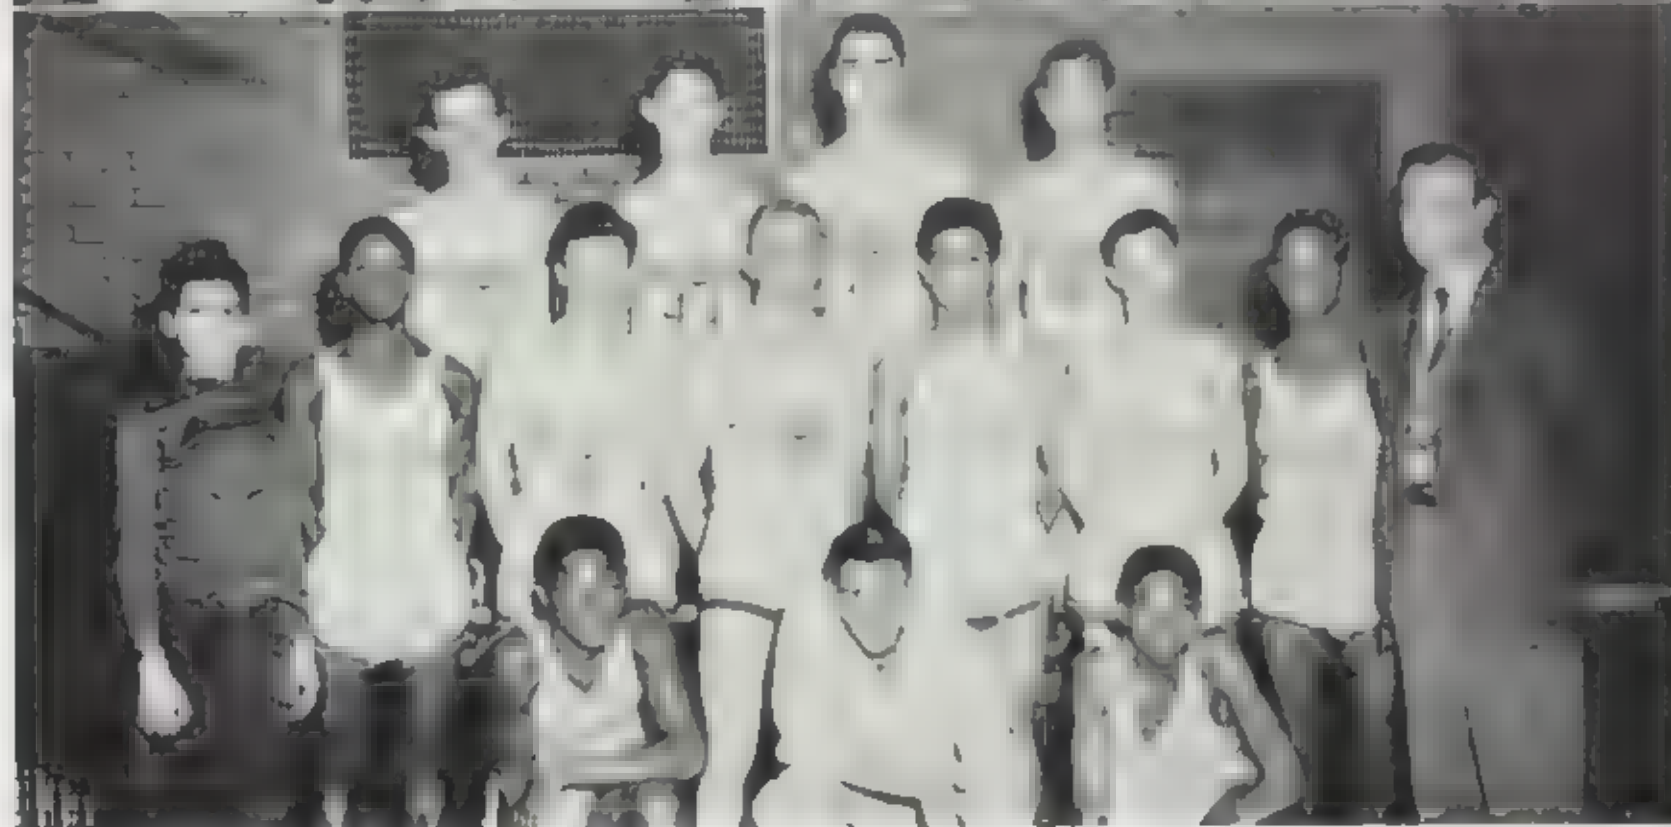

Our reserve team clearly showed that they were capable of being next year's varsity. They developed quickly and attained a high degree of skill. The team was hard carried in that many of its players were taken into the varsity ranks. We have a new coach this season Coach Karr. We extend our welcome to all our many fans and spectators at Washington.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

First Row: Sedor, Matuga, Gillis, Pinkins, Buzea, Comer (manager).

Second Row: Coach Baratto, Rescan, Gorchin, J. Manous, Mahan, G. Manous, Wolak, Molodel.

This year's team was one of the most balanced in the conference. There were seniors, juniors, and sophomores on the team that made a fine showing during the last season. Among the team's accomplishments were the winning of the Martinsville Holiday Tournament and the great upset of Gary Freeman previously unbeaten, during the regular season.

The seniors on this year's team were Sedor, Gorchin, Mahan, Gillis, Matuga, and Rescan. The junior class added J. Manous, G. Manous, Buzea, and Wolak. Molodel, a sophomore, was also on the varsity.

The team won 15 and lost 7 during the whole season (including tournaments). Some of the games were under a 5 point winning edge. The most bitter loss to take was the loss to city rival, Roosevelt in the tournament. We wish Coach Baratto a lot of luck in the coming season. With his fine coaching and a fine group of kids coming up, we are sure to continue being a winner.

One of the honors given to selected seniors is membership in the National Honor Society. To be eligible, the student must rank scholastically in the upper third of the senior class and must meet the approval of the entire faculty. The choice is based on character, leadership, and service to the school.

The members, with their sponsor Mr. Kellam, held a meeting to select officers. This year the officers are: Harry Vanderzeyde, president; Henry Gibbs, vice president; Edith Tharp, secretary; and Kathryn Poi, treasurer. All the members have the privilege of wearing the emblem of the National Honor Society as a token of their accomplishment.

These outstanding students will represent the Class of 1950. We are proud of them.

 Basketball moved into the picture.
 Our cheerleaders were the bestest in the Mid Year Competition on January 2nd brought the end and the beginning for some of our favorite people. This is our year.

February

Our hearts were broken, for Roosevelt had an extremely lucky evening — we lost in the last three minutes of our second game in the tournament The students surprised themselves and Miss Johnston by giving a super-colossal performance of "Stage Door" Orchids to our wrestling team who did a swell job in both conference and state meets Something happened to the girls, brown hair turned black, black hair turned brown, and black hair had

...ghed as we waded through the worst snowfalls of the year But you Where al flowers were seen on sweaters and blouses in anticipation of those warm days Senior were held and announcements and name cards were ordered — oh dear, time went too fast Everyone was proud of the Choral Club and Mr. Hoel for the fine concert they presented on Sunday afternoon, March 1st Another entertaining evening was provided by the Senior Anvil Staff when they presented "Orenda", the magician, and his evening of mystery

April

Easter came and went and we had five whole days of vacation — and all the boys came oh yes, the girls came Choral Club wowed the Roosevelt students at the assembly they presented there The baseball and track teams started practicing, hoping to have a good season Everyone racked their brains for a novel skit for the Hi Lites .

May

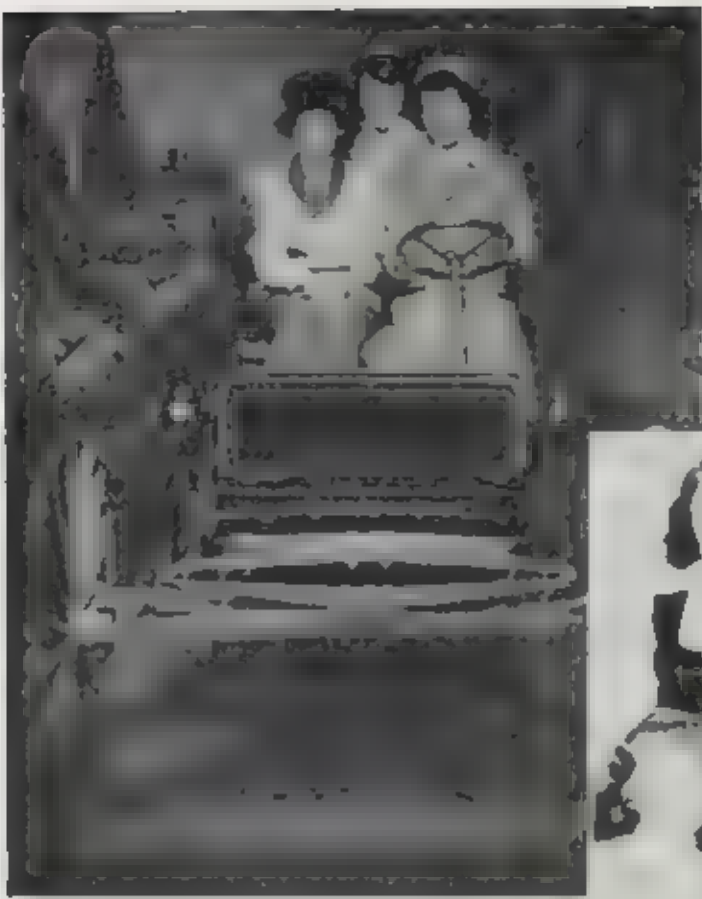

It was so beautiful out that it was a temptation you know what Mr. Souter had slaving away on their consumer reports Everyone was in a festive mood the night of the spring concert and the band, orchestra, and Choral Club presented a fine program We're sure Hollywood should come to WHS for some talent Plenty turned up at the Hi Lites and it was a great show Not many more days left

The Seniors were both happy and sad Hobo Day was such fun and almost all the Seniors went wild Senior Day came at the right time, for almost everyone was at a Spring formal the night before Class day was perfect, and the Baccalaureate service was beautiful But everything happened too fast — for all that's left now is — graduation June 14th the happiest, — yet saddest, day of our lives
